

BRETHREN EVANGELIST

you have reached the hundred mark in the College and are correspondingly rejoiced. I want to congratulate you most heartily upon your splendid progress and success and to wish you God-speed in your great work.

Naturally I am interested first of all in the Colleges of my own church, but I rejoice in the prosperity of every Christian College, for I am convinced that our church institutions of learning must be the bulwarks of religion against the materialism that infects so many of the State Universities. For this reason I am glad to see you grow; and then, also, as a citizen of Ashland, realizing the good you do the community, I rejoice with you.

May the Lord grant you a still larger measure of blessing and prosperity in the future.

Ashland College News

As was told in last week's EVANGELIST, the college spirit broke loose on Tuesday Jan. 14. Its manifestations were visible during the whole day and have not yet altogether faded. The good done and the impressions made will never be lost. We would that our readers might have been here and have seen those Professors wrapped in purple and gold bunting and carried in air, and that you might have heard those college yells things which are indescribable, and yet indispensable. The praise service at noon showed that the Giver of all was remembered. The banquet and entertainment of the evening was enjoyed by all. The Ashland Band showed their respect and appreciation of the college by very pleasantly surprising us early in the evening and furnishing music for the occasion. It was a day that will long be remembered. It was a rally day that will do the college good. The church ought to have a rally day and give to the college her loyal undivided support. Success has crowned the efforts of noble, inspiring, self-sacrificing teachers, and of faithful students. The outlook is bright. Help us to make it brighter.

A chapel lecture was given last Friday morning by J. E. Turner, a noted Y. M. C. A. worker, and a member of the American Bible College. He spoke on the "Value of Bible Study." He has a practical knowledge of the Bible which few men possess, but which many, if not all, ought to have. His address was replete with good thought and healthy humor.

Prof. Furry delivered the Sunday afternoon address before the Y. M. C. A. His subject was "Ideals." Prof. Furry never fails to give us some thing above the ordinary.

Wm. Beachler, E. D. Burnworth, D. F. Elkenberry, and H. M. Oberholtzer filled their respective appointments on Sunday.

The writer had the pleasure of preaching to the people at Louisville Sunday morning and evening. They are a warm-hearted people down there. Bro. Byers, their pastor was absent holding a series of meetings at Middlebranch, Ohio.

Prof. Miller has been ill for a few days but is improving.

Miss Sylvia Kinsey is also on the sick list.

Mr. Learsch of Ashland is the latest to enroll.

The C. E. Meeting was led Sunday evening by Mrs. A. H. Lichty.

The "Purple and Gold" will be issued this week.
GEO. C. CARPENTER.

The mother aims at perfection for her child without realizing what perfection in a child should be. Too often the fond parent feels that the dress makes the child, and consequently adorns it in the latest and showiest fashion without realizing that harm instead of good is done to the child by hampering its actions or making it over-conscious. The every-day child will revel in dirt. It accumulates it by satisfying its curiosity, for its hands are into everything as well as its feet and knees and clothes. He must get nearer to Mother Earth. His instinct is unerring in this respect, and his good nurse repays him a thousand-fold. Dr. Grace Peckham Murray, in the February Delineator, says mothers should encourage the mud pie making and sand digging, and the dress and clothing should be such that the child would not be reproved for muddy shoes, soiled and torn dresses.

CAPITAL STOCK $1,000,000.00. PAR VALUE OF STOCK $1.00 PER SHARE. (NON ASSESSABLE.)

ASHLAND, OHIO, January 22, 1902.

The Cascade Gold and Copper Mining Co. began the new year, 1902, with very flattering prospects indeed. Their fondest anticipations have been more than realized up to this time. Every letter from the mines brings more flattering news. The latest photographs give a fair representation of the ledges of ore. Only a short tunnel of 200 feet is required to reach and cut two ledges. One of four feet and another, the main ledge, of from 20 to 100 feet in thickness, as shown from the surface croppings. We are very fortunate in our claims requiring so short a tunnel. Many mines require a vast fortune for tunneling before they reach paying quantities. As we will be saved of this expense, we hope to be able to market our ore in a few months and pay handsome dividends. In three assays of our surface ore values averaged over $57 per ton. Ore lower down will necessarily assay much higher.

Many mines are run with a profit with $6 to $10 ore. What we can do with upwards of $50 can easily be imagined. We are offering a limited amount of stock at 10 cents per share, for a short time, to complete our tunnel and prepare for moving the ore. Those who desire to come in on the ground floor NOW and share with us must do so without delay. People who act quickly in any legitimate proposition are the ones who get on in the world and leave the others waiting. We will not promise to furnish our stock for 10 cents longer than 60 days. The next rise in stock will be 20 cents. All information at our command is at your disposal for the asking. First come, first served.

Our Special Offer

Until further notice we will offer a limited amount of regular stock at 10 cents per share to all who desire to come in and share with us. Persons who desire to obtain several hundred shares, can if they wish, buy them on the partial payment plan, making monthly payments. Mining experts who have visited our camp say our price, 10 cents, is under value. We believe this and think we are giving you a great bargain. Come in while this stock can be had at a low price. Don't wait till it doubles again. We expect it to reach $1 within a year. Write for full particulars.
